5A Chui Ching Yi, Nicole

It was a sunny day. The weather was really beautiful. Baby Bear decided to go for a walk in the forest because he was very bored. Baby Bear asked his mum, 'Mum, can I go for a walk in the forest by myself?' His mum replied, 'Sorry! You can go for a walk but you need to go with me and your dad!'

Then, Mama Bear, Papa Bear and Baby Bear went for a walk in the forest. Later, near a lake, they saw Goldilocks' house. Goldilocks was their friend. They stopped and peeped inside her house. They were curious why her house was so noisy. Therefore, they knocked on the door loudly again.

After knocking on the door, Goldilocks surprisingly opened the door. She politely invited them to go inside. They came in Goldilocks' house. They saw many people in the house. Mama Bear asked, 'Who are they?' Goldilocks answered, 'They are my friends, Tim, Amy, Nicole and Coco. They are celebrating my birthday.'

After that, Mama Bear, Papa Bear and Baby Bear sang a birthday song to Goldilocks and celebrated her birthday with her friends. They danced, played games and ate a lot of snacks. Finally, Goldilocks' friends gave a lot of gifts to her. Nicole gave her a nice storybook; Amy gave her a lot of beautiful pens. Coco gave her a pink dress. They were all very happy! The three bears left happily at midnight.

I had a great day trip to Tsim Sha Tsui last month. I went there with my family, friends and cousins. We went there by Uber. My younger sister and I were very excited.

First, we went to K11 for shopping. We bought a lot of clothes and souvenirs. My mum is fashionable, and she always buys some delicious candies. After eating the candies, we went to Avenue of Stars to take pictures with the waterfront view of the city's iconic skyline. The sky was wonderful.

Later, we went to visit the Historic Collections of Hong Kong. Then we watched the iconic view of the city's harbour. It was time to leave. This is one of my favourite attractions in Hong Kong. I felt very happy, and it was a relaxing day.

One day, Eric and Alan went on a hike. However, they lost their way in a forest. Fortunately, they saw a castle. 'Let's go into the castle to look for some food!' said Alan.

When they went into the castle, they couldn't see anyone in the castle. Therefore, they slipped into the castle. The wind grumbled and rumbled. The roof rattled, too. Eric and Alan were very afraid. They crept into the living room.

Suddenly, they saw a wooden wardrobe. They thought there would be a lot of food items inside. Suddenly, they heard some noise from the wardrobe. They thought about the sound and then they opened it.

'Eric! There is a gen-gen-genie!' cried Alan. They squeezed their eyes shut and the house rocked, too. 'Hi! My little friends! May I help you?' said the cute genie. 'Yes, we need your help. We are lost in the forest!' said Eric and Alan.

At last, the genie helped Eric and Alan return home. Finally, the genie disappeared and nobody saw it again.

One day, Jack woke up in the morning. He felt very unhappy because he thought of the test he had to do. When he was still in bed at home, he thought of an idea of how he could avoid doing the test.

Then, he went to hospital. He saw the nurse in the nurse's station. He quickly went to the nurse's station. Jack pretended to be sick. He said, 'Excuse me. I am sick.' The nurse asked, 'What's the matter with you?' 'I have a fever,' he replied.

As the nurse was concerned and confused about why he felt sick, she checked his temperature to make sure that he was sick. He wasn't so sick, but the nurse thought he was. Therefore, she said that she had some special medicine for him. Jack didn't like medicine, so he confessed to the nurse and told her the truth.

The nurse was shocked. She contacted Jack's parents about this. His parents were furious when they found out. His mum went to the hospital. They took him to school for his test. They were disappointed in him. They told Jack to always tell the truth.
